OFFICE OF THE MINISTER FOR L. S. G. & P. H.
Date.....3-12-41
No.....830

May it please you Sir,

The humble applicant H.K. Bheemaiya, a poor Adikarnataka of Chitaldrug District, begs to submit the following and pray for your generous consideration.

I have passed the S.S.L.C. Examination of 1939 and have put in a total service of one year in the City Municipality in leave vacancies. My present appointment in the Census Office after one year of service will be retrenched in a few days when I shall be left helpless.

Your Honour was pleased to say, when last you paid a visit to the Census Office that officials of this office would be shown preference over others and absorbed in available vacancies, when they are retrenched.

I now beg to state that I have applied for Vacancy No. 194, advertised in Mysore Gazette dated 13th November 1941, (Post of an Assistant Public Conveyance Inspector on Rs. 30/- per mensem) and which I am duly qualified.

As it is I stand little chances of securing the above post, in the midst of competition from other candidates of various communities.

In view of the backwardness of my community and my poorness and the service I have put in, I crave for your sympathy and pray to be pleased to cause me appointed in the above vacancy by the Municipal Commissioner.

For which act of kindness and grace, I shall be eternally grateful to you,

Forwarded, with compliments, to the Public Service Commissioner for disposal.

I beg to remain
